*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

We confess, triune God, that we have sinned and are in deep need of forgiveness and correction. We have sinned against you, Father, by diminishing and exploiting your creation, putting it at risk for our children and grandchildren. We have sinned against you, Jesus, by not caring for those whom you love. We have sinned against you, Spirit of God, by ignoring or slighting our mandate to speak up for our faith, in spite the promise to empower our witness. Forgive us, and restore us by your grace shown in Jesus Christ and through the prodding of your Spirit. Amen.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

L: Our Lord said to those who would listen, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free."

P: We receive the life-giving truth of God’s forgiveness with gladness, that we may live anew for God’s kingdom. Amen.

Wedding Album

At long last, the Second Presbyterian Church members' wedding album is complete and ready for viewing. I have placed it, temporarily, in the Parlor so that everyone might have more opportunity to look through it at their leisure. After a few weeks, I'll put it in its permanent home, in the Historical Room, which is open on the first Sunday of each month. Many thanks to all those who contributed their wonderful pictures. And if there's anyone else who still wishes to contribute, I can easily add more photos.

Memorial Day emerged from the grim shadows of the American Civil War. Before the close of the war, women began decorating the graves of soldiers who had died in that war. The practice quickly spread, and a few years later May 30, 1868, was designated as Decoration Day — a day for placing flowers on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers throughout the United States.

In 1882, Decoration Day became known as Memorial Day, and soldiers who died in other wars were also honored. Over the years, it has become a day when all loved ones who have died — in war and otherwise — are remembered. In 1971, the United States Congress declared Memorial Day a national holiday to be observed annually on the last Monday in May.

On this Memorial Day, remember those who gave their lives for our country. But also pray for those who continue serving to keep America free, especially those who are in harm's way.
