

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

During 2009, the Presbyterian Women were very busy as usual. Their ministry included the following:

- Visits, calls, cards, food and gifts to shut-ins, sick and bereaved
- Gifts and a picnic for patients at Western State Hospital
- Dinner for the Friendship Club
- Food prepared for grieving families by the Dorcas Group
- Monthly contributions to Second Church benevolence and Meals on Wheels
- Memorials to Sunnyside
- Contributions to Union Theological Seminary, Montreat and Least Coin
- Donated to Church Women United
- Donated to Volunteer Services at Western State Hospital
- Compiled church history
- Mission pledge to synod and presbytery
- Responsible for displays in cabinet in Fellowship Hall
- Donated to Presbyterian Homes and Family Services
- Donated to Staunton/Augusta County Dept. of Social Services
- Sewing items to third world countries and Valley Rescue Mission
- Donated to Union Presbyterian Seminary ministry fund
- Attended Church Women United meetings and spring and fall gatherings at Massanetta
- One life membership in PW
- Donated to Massanetta and Weekday Religious Education
- Donated to church Memorial Fund
- Donated to Sunnyside Links of Love
- Sponsored Blanket Fund and Birthday Offering
- Donated food for volunteers at the Augusta Regional Free Clinic
- Made a donation to the Free Clinic
- Co-hosted the Palm Sunday lunch
- Sanctuary flowers overseen each Sunday
- Palm Sunday flowers in memory of deceased members
- Flowers in side yard
- Maintenance of Historical Room
- Volunteers at Augusta Health, Free Clinic and Comfort Care Women's Center and lunch program at Trinity Church
- Donated to the Food Bank
- School kits to Salvation Army in September
- Held a food drive in November for Valley Mission
- Refurbished the two chairs in the chancel, behind the pulpit and lecturn

There are three circles that meet each month for prayer fellowship and bible study. If you are not an active member of one of these, you are encouraged to come and be part of a caring group.

Respectfully submitted
Betty Clemmer, Moderator